7. Reports
  - A. Kathleen Doherty-Peck, Senior Center Director
    - 1) Doherty-Peck reported that the Senior Center will be adding a new evening class, Zumba Gold. The Center has not had any evening or weekend programs in years as a way to help the Town cut costs. We will slowly start adding programs in, this is the first. Zumba Gold is designed for seniors and presently offered during the day, already has quite a few signed up for it.
    - 2) Doherty-Peck reported that another new evening class will be offered beginning in March, Zentangle, which is an Art Class.
    - 3) Doherty-Peck reported that because we are adding two new classes, and ALL of the classes at the Center are FREE, she will be holding a Fund-Raiser Dinner in March to help with the costs.
  - B. Billy Caron, Liaison, Doherty-Peck reported for Liaison Caron as he was unable to attend:
    - 1) Apologized for not being able to attend, he was impressed with our Meet & Greet with the Police that was set up between Sgt. Greenwood and Director Kathie Peck.
    - 2) Working with Senator Olsten to try and get funding for senior centers again, will have meeting with Senator Olsten and Director Peck.
8. Old Business

A. Chicken Soup Program

1) Doherty-Peck reported that no one has been signed up to be a recipient. There was a discussion for getting seniors to participate.

B. GAP

2) Doherty-Peck reported that no one has signed up for this program. Doherty. Discussion for working with Sgt. Greenwood on if the Officers would be able to help get the information out to seniors.

9. New Business

- 1) Doherty-Peck introduced Sgt. Ernie Greenwood to the membership, Sgt. Greenwood will be a liaison for the Commission and Police to work on projects together and ways to help our elderly in Town. The Commission was very happy with the addition and welcome Sgt. Greenwood
- 2) File of Life – Sgt Greenwood brought some information on a File of Life as a program for our seniors. Discussion followed on getting more information, all agreed it was a great program to offer. Commission decided to make this our next project. Skinner made a motion, Antoniac seconded, all in favor.
- 3) Sgt Greenwood asked the Commission if they knew of ways to get help to seniors on off times (i.e. 3:00 AM) Discussion followed regarding Protective Services for the Elderly. Commission members will look for information.

10. Remarks from the public
