7. Reports
 - A. Kathleen Doherty-Peck, Senior Center Director
 - 1) Doherty-Peck reported that she had recently gone to Hartford to meet with the DSS Commissioner as well as the acting Department on Aging Commissioner regarding issues that she and her colleagues are facing with her senior clients as well as her social services clients. Issues are that her clients state benefits are being denied or cut-off for non-redeterminations though they have been done. There is no communication between the municipalities and state and that is part of the problem. Doherty-Peck reported that the meetings were very productive and has faith that changes will be made to increase communication so assistance for her clients will be available.
 - 2) She reported that there are two special dinner events for the month of September and all other programs and services are going well.
 - B. Liaison Caron was not in attendance but sent report
 - 1) Reported that there is a Town Public Hearing scheduled for September 8th regarding the additional Veterans Exemption proposed.

- 2) Reported that he is working on the Veterans Fund with the Director to have assistance available for necessities of our Veterans.
