7. Reports
Doherty-Peck reported on the upcoming grants as well as additional funding from the State should be happening soon. All programs are running well, including new ones. The only program not running at this time is the Computer Program as our instructor passed during covid. Presently looking for a new instructor.

Town Councilor Liaison Billy Caron reported a new HR position has been filled and she seems to be doing a great job. Councilor Caron also stated that he is on the ARPA committee and as liaison to the Senior Center has seen the center has new outdoor freezer and refrigerator to hopefully go in soon. He is also on top of the repairs to the old town hall, which housed our social services office and programs (as well as storage) and progress is being made there too.
