RE: Application of KKSH2 LLC (on behalf of Marine Materials Management Limited Liability Company) 125 Depot Road, Montville, Connecticut

Dear Ms. Burdick:

On behalf of the above referenced Applicant with respect to a site plan application currently pending before the Montville Planning and Zoning Commission for approval of a material amendment and transloading use of a portion of the above referenced property, we hereby request that this matter be tabled at the November 14, 2023 meeting of the Montville Planning and Zoning Commission and continued to the December, 2023 meeting. In furtherance thereof, the Applicant hereby grants to the Montville Planning and Zoning Commission an extension of the statutory time period in which the Commission is required to render a decision on this Application to December 12, 2023.

We hereby request that the Commission take the requested action as the Applicant continues to address staff review comments and reconcile differences in the methodologies proposed for material amendment in the above referenced application with the methodologies approved by the Connecticut Department of Energy and Environmental Protection in the currently extant demonstration permit for this use.
