8. Reports
Doherty-Peck –Doherty-Peck reported that this is the time of the year when the process of writing grants begins. She is putting in for the one she presently runs (5 of them) and adding a new one as well. She describes how the Homemaker Grant has far exceeded what the intent of the grant was for and that is it truly a success. She will be asking to expand that programs. The Center remains busy with a membership of over 2,000 seniors.

Lt Radford Report – Lt. Radford reported the addition and continuation of scams, many targeting our seniors. Discussion on securing a date for the Lieutenant to come to center to give a presentation. Adams described a scam letter she received and called Medicare about; Medicare confirming it was a scam.

Council Liaison Report
None
9. Old Business
Discussion on our Home Care issues; Ziegler suggested at past meeting to possibly going to the newspaper and have them do a story and contacting State Ombudsman Program to discuss. Discussion will continue at next meeting. Doherty-Peck mentioned that there was a Bill recently proposed regarding “housing and homecare”, she will print that out to have available to the Commission next month.
10. New business
Discussion on the need for more elderly housing in Town will continue. Liaison Caron will update the commission on what is expecting to be coming to Town with regards to senior housing. Perkins would like the commission to be kept aware and would like to work to ensure that the Town is and stays involved to help provide a safe and “true” elderly housing for our seniors; including the need of overseeing and enforcing the safety of elderly housing residents.
