Direct Dialogue May 2010

Here come the May flowers! We all know that we had plenty of April showers (actually too much), so the grass should be greener than ever and the flowers blooming in scores of pretty colors! April flew right by us here at MYSB with the school vacation week and Turn Off TV Week back to back, and the Youth Forum at The Coast Guard it left us just enough time to have the last week to get ready for MYSB Fun Days which are the first week of May! We have tons of fun stuff planned for Fun Days (see inside) but first we will be kicking things off with our 6th Annual Pasta Dinner On Sunday May 2nd @ The Mohegan Fire House from 4:00- 7:00 p.m. Please consider joining us for some the best Italian style cuisine you could ever have, and the chance to take home some very cool silent auction items! It is affordable, awesome family fun! Our famous Chefs (Troy & John) will be returning again and putting their magic touch on everything they cook! Trust us the sauces alone are worth the trip!

Also this month we celebrate our Mother's and our Troops both whom have done so much for us and still do! So don't forget to do something special for Mom on Sunday May 9th! I personally find that cards are one of the best gifts we can give someone and of course our appreciation...but flowers and a nice dinner out never hurt either! Also remember to fly your American flag high and proud in observance of Memorial Day on May 31st and let everyone know that you area proud American that has not forgotten those who fought for our Freedom! I know that I will be flying my flag at home! Well enjoy the sunshine and the familiar smell of folks firing up the grill with burgers and hotdogs. It is time for some outdoor fun. Be safe while enjoying this month with family and friends Have a Marvelous May!

Warm regards ~ Barbara
