Good morning,

John, can you please provide comments for this application. Our subdivision regulations do not allow for the PZC to make a decision until your comments have been received. The application was continued at our last meeting to September 22, 2026.

Travis, this was sent to John Meigel so you most likely didn't see it. Typically the FM Office does not have any comments on a subdivision for single family homes. However, I will send them to you in case you have any information about the area that you would like to share from a fire department.

Thank you both!

Regards,

Meredith Badalucca, CZE0
