7. Reports
 - A. Kathleen Doherty-Peck, Senior Center Director
 - 1) Doherty-Peck reported that May is the Older American Month and there would be a celebration for on May 30, 2014.
 - 2) She reported that May 9 2014 is the art show from 6-8 with music and hors d'oeuvres.
 - 3) Doherty-Peck reported that the new Monday evening class from 5:30-7:30 called Zentangle is going very well.
 - 4) The new Wednesdays Zumba evening class from 6:00 – 7:00 is also going well.
 - 5) Doherty-Peck reported an issue that occurred with a disabled Montville resident who was not a senior citizens. He wants to attend the exercise classes offered because the cost of the classes he goes to are very expensive. She explained that the center is for Montville Residents who are seniors only. It is not for use of any other age group or those with disabilities. Kathie contacted Senator Osten, our Area Agency on Aging and others to make sure there were no changes in policy or regulations and that the town had the right to make the restriction. A motion was made by Skinner and seconded by Adams to support current town policy that the Center is for senior citizens only. All in favor.

8. Old Business

A. Chicken Soup Program

1) Doherty-Peck reported that no one has been signed up to be a recipient, Adams did give the names of two potential recipients so MacNeil and Doherty-Peck will work on getting them some "chicken soup".

B. GAP

2) Doherty-Peck reported that no one has signed up for this program. The committee suggested we do a mass mailing with postage cards, Doherty-Peck will check the cost. Sgt. Greenwood and Doherty-Peck will go to elderly housing, Hillcrest community, and senior club meeting to talk about the program.

C. File of Life

1) Doherty-Peck showed the Commission the File of Life Cards for the refrigerators and the personal ones for wallets and pocketbooks for the seniors that Sgt. Greenwood had picked out. They went over very well at the Health Fair.
