11. Remarks from the committee

Ziegler asked how the money raised through the concert would help veterans. Doherty-Peck explained they would be going into a fund to help veterans with basic needs while they interim with her for setting with other programs on a permanent basis.

Skinner asked how the GAP program was going. Doherty-Peck said they still didn't have anyone signed up for the program. There was a discussion about how to make more people aware of it. Possibly sending flyers to all residents and having post cards given to customers at both Stop and Shop and Best Market.

11. Adjourn

Meeting adjourned at 10:20 motioned by Ziegler and Seconded by Skinner.
