The Town Council and Mayor McDaniel did not enter into Executive Session as Candidates Jeremiah Ross, Community Center Building Committee, and Margaret Skinner, Commission on Aging, opted to be interviewed publicly. Christina Dimick Zelates, Economic Development Commission, was unable to attend the meeting due to a family emergency.

Ms. Skinner is seeking a re-appointment to the Commission on Aging to continue working with them to accomplish their goals. The Councilors thanked her for her service. Councilor Longton stated that he was pleased to see her continue her service to the Town, after working as the Town Clerk for many years. Councilor Caron expressed his appreciation of her experience and the dedication she brings to the Commission, which, he added, is a very talented group of individuals. She, too, thanked the Mayor and the Councilors for their service.

Chairman Jaskiewicz introduced Mr. Ross, stating that he would be a good addition to the Committee Center Building Committee. Having served on the original Committee, he will be able to provide the new members with the background and history of the Building. The Councilors thanked him for his willingness to volunteer and agreed that his knowledge and experience would be a great addition to the Committee. Councilor Longton also expressed his appreciation to Mr. Ross, who is a Special Education teacher in Griswold, for his hard work and dedication. Mayor McDaniel also thanked him for his past and future service and looks forward to working with him and pushing the project ahead.
